In-Text Citations in OSF

1. Create in-text citations in R Markdown/OSF wiki by using citekeys (all lowercase)

[@ + last name of first author + year of publication + first word of title (excluding function words i.e. a, an, the, but, of, etc.)] = ie. [zimmerman2020system]

2. Add the level 1 header "# References" to end of the R Markdown document/OSF wiki to auto-generate a references page at the end of the file

Using BetterBibTeX with Zotero

1. Download BetterBibTeX for Zotero here:

<https://retorque.re/zotero-better-bibtex/installation/>

2. Add BetterBibTex as an Extension in Zotero:

Tools > Add ons > Extensions > Install Add on from File > Restart Zotero

3. Navigate to BetterBibTeX within Zotero

Go to Zotero > Preferences > BetterBibTeX

4. Specify citation key format. Enter:

[auth:lower][year][veryshorttitle1:lower] = [@ + last name of first author + year of publication + first word of title (excluding function words i.e. a, an, the, but, of, etc.)] = ie. [zimmerman2020system]

5. Specify Pandoc parameters.

Use "Pandoc" under QuickCopy format and check the box for "Surround Pandoc citations with brackets"

6. Download .bib file.

Right click on library (TeamPSD) > Export library > Better BibTeX > Select keep updated > Hit ok

7. Decide on .csl file or citation style to use.

Search & download relevant .csl file here: <https://www.zotero.org/styles>

8. Add .bib & .csl file to same working directory as R Markdown file

9. Add .bib & .csl file to YAML header:

title: "Sample Document" output: html_document
bibliography: teampsd.bib
csl: apa.csl
